DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Pannu v. Storz Instruments Inc., 258 F.3d 1366, 59 USPQ2d 1597 (Fed. Cir. 2001); Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436, 221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope surrendered in the application for the patent cannot be recaptured by the filing of the present reissue application.

The reasons for this rejection are as follows:

1. Reissue claims 1-20 are broader than patent claims 1-20, as light is broader than laser beam
2. From the prosecution record, the applicant clearly argued prior art failed to disclose means for modulating the intensity of a laser beam with the image data of one color as defined in patented claims 1-20. Thus, the applicant has surrendered the scope of the claim that does not include means for modulating the intensity of a laser beam with the image data of one color. However, the surrendered subject of the means for modulating the intensity of light has crept back into the reissue application.

3. the reissue claims are not materially narrower in other aspects to avoid the recapture rule.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 04/21/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants argue that the recitation of "laser" was merely a mistake. The recitation may be true, however, processing of a reissue to correct the error is not the proper mechanism. The examiner hereby maintains that reissue claims that are broader than the original patent claims in a manner directly pertinent to the subject matter surrendered during prosecution are impermissible.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
